Language Maintenance Course for teachers of German at A2/B1 levels

For all schools and principals

Applications are sought from teachers of German to undertake a preparation course from June to September 2014 to sit the internationally recognised Goethe A2/B1 examination within the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages run by the Goethe-Institut in Melbourne.
Department of Education and Early Childhood Development – Victoria

For all schools and principals

Language Maintenance Course for teachers of German

Main Points

- Goethe-Institut in Melbourne, in partnership with the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development (DEECD) is offering teachers of German the opportunity to undertake a certified specialist German Course and exam at A2/B1 level.

- The A2/B1 exam is an internationally recognised exam within the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

- A 60 hour preparation course commencing 21 June 2014 at Goethe-Institut in Melbourne will conclude with an examination on 29 September 2014 after four sessions of intensive exam training.

- DEECD will cover course costs for participants. Participants will be required to contribute $75.00 for course materials.

Actions Required

- Principals are requested to forward this circular to professional development coordinators and eligible teachers.

- Applications must be submitted by email to Eva Spiesberger, Goethe-Institut Melbourne, Course Manager, at leargerman@melbourne.com.org.

Critical Dates

- Applications close on Friday 13 June 2014.

- A placement test will be held in the week starting Monday, 16 September 2014.

Additional Information

- For further information and application forms, contact Eva Spiesberger on (03) 9864 8918 or email at leargerman@melbourne.com.org.